SUCH AS

Pimples on the Face, Sore Eyes, &c.

WE MAKE NO CLAIMS TO HAVING discovered a "Panacea" or "Universal Remedy" for all the allments to which flesh is heir; but we do claim what countless facts have fairly and fully established that in the BLOOD-SEARCHER, the afflicted will find a "Standard Medicine, one upon which they can rely as a sure spe-cific for all the diseases for which it is recommended.

I have this day, October 7th, 1864, disposed of my entire interest in J. M. Lindsny's Intrinoval BLOOD SEARCHER, to R. E. SELLERS & CO. Logether with the right to use my name in its preparation. The only genuine article will hereafter be prepared by them exclusively.

Art. 4. Charles.—I admit that I am sometimes hasty and violent. I hope to be excused from any sudden burst of anger.

Helen.—It will perhaps be hard to endure, but the condition is acceded to. Art. 5. Helen.—I must also be paratile uneven, and I am greatly disposed to be jealous.

Charles.—I will not mind caprices if they are not too frequent. As to the other fault, I am disposed to rejoice at it rather than otherwise, for a jealous person is not likely to give cause for any desires in things of small importance, but always arise from petty causes. On this account we mutually promise never to follow our own desires in things of small importance, but always to give way to each other.

Helen.—In important matters it will be right that Charles should decide, for he has more knowledge and judgment than I.

Charles.—Helen is too modest. I shall never decide anything without consulting her, and either converting her to my views or adopting her sir? I think them best.
